INDEX

VOLUME XVII: OCTOBER, 1937-MAY, 1938

Abraham, Herbert J., Let's Interview the Government, 16
Aitchison, Alison E., and Marguerite Uttley, Maps: The Sign Language of Geography, 289
Ashland, Homer B., Cooperative Supervision, 356
Atlantic City Convention, 44, 139, 202, 363

Bartlett, Beulah D., and Blythe F. Monroe, Live and Learn at Potrero Heights, 181
Becker, Henry F., An Evaluation of Some Visual Aids to the Teaching of Geography, 287
Bergen, Catharine, Meeting the Science Needs of Children in the Intermediate Grades, 188
BOOK REVIEWS:
The Other Half of the Curriculum, 45
Helping Parents—and Others—to Understand the Modern School, 45
A Federal Reading Project, 46
Directing Study Activities, 92
Supervision and Teaching in Kindergarten and Primary Grades, 141
Apparatus for Training Readers, 141
Special Training in Reading for High School Students, 141
More Advice on School Publicity, 142
A Curriculum Guide for Intermediate Grade Teachers, 205
Democracy, 205
Adventuring in Education, 206
The Junior High School, 253
Whither Curriculum? 253
Philosophy of Education, 254
The Meaning and Practice of Integration, 317
French Novelists and Adolescence, 318
The Principals' Yearbook, 318
How to Teach, 319
The Colleges are Invited to Study Education, 366
Teaching and Management, 367
Social Interpretation, 426
Problems of Today, 427
Social Living, 427
Comparative Education, 427
Books, The New, 47, 95, 142, 207, 256, 319, 367, 429
Brownell, William A., What Has Happened to Supervised Study? 373

Character Education in Old China, Eric G. Haden, 120
Child Guidance Bureau Personnel, The Functions of the, Joseph Miller, 118
Citizenship Training Practical, Let's Make, Albert G. Reilley, 99
Cohler, Milton J., A Reading Program for the First Two Years of Elementary School, 213
COOPERATION:
Dictatorship or Cooperation? R. Bruce Raup, 323
The Place of Cooperation in the Development of Instruction, Paul J. Misner, 329
Techniques of Cooperation Between Community Groups and the School, Alfred D. Sheffield, 335
Teachers in the Cooperative Development of Instructional Programs, Alice Miel, 342
Community Cooperation in the Development of Instructional Programs, Glenn Kendall, 348
Techniques of Cooperation, S. A. Courtis, 349
Cooperative Practices in the Development of Instructional Programs—Group Discussions, 351
Courtis, S. A., Techniques of Cooperation, 349

Danger Signals in the Club Program, Enid S. Smith, 80
Davis, L. C., Field Work in Geography, 293
Design for Schools, Eber Jeffery, 3
Detroit Meeting, 42
DIRECTION OF STUDY:
Directed Study as Guidance in Learning, Edwin H. Reeder, 371
What Has Happened to Supervised Study? William A. Brownell, 373
Learning to Study in the Early Grades, Dessalee Ryan Dudley, 378
The Direction of Study in Elementary Schools Using the Integrated Program, Lillian Gray, 382
Directing Children's Study of Geography, Edwin H. Reeder, 386
The Function of the Elementary School Library in Directing Study, Anna Reger, 391
The Child's Experience and His Art, Lucie Ann McCall, 395
Discussion Method in Teaching the Social Studies, The, C. A. Harper, 74
Dornblut, Julius Jr., Administering Elementary School Excursions, 70
Dudley, Dessalee Ryan, Learning to Study in the Elementary Grades, 378

EDITORIALS:
The Best Schools, James F. Hosic, 39
One Test, James F. Hosic, 86
A Modern Kindergarten, F. M. Underwood, 137
The Program for the Intermediate Grades, F. M. Underwood, 201
An Open Mind, F. M. Underwood, 249
These Things Are Out, F. M. Underwood, 315
Some Agencies in Geographic Education, George J. Miller, 315
The Convention Number, F. M. Underwood, 362
Needs of Society Versus Nature of the Child, F. M. Underwood, 362
Study, F. M. Underwood, 422
The Rôle of Emotion in Intelligence, F. M. Underwood, 422

INDEX

VOLUME XVII: OCTOBER, 1937-MAY, 1938

Abraham, Herbert J., Let's Interview the Government, 16
Aitchison, Alison E., and Marguerite Uttley, Maps: The Sign Language of Geography, 289
Ashland, Homer B., Cooperative Supervision, 356
Atlantic City Convention, 44, 139, 202, 363

Bartlett, Beulah D., and Blythe F. Monroe, Live and Learn at Potrero Heights, 181
Becker, Henry F., An Evaluation of Some Visual Aids to the Teaching of Geography, 287
Bergen, Catharine, Meeting the Science Needs of Children in the Intermediate Grades, 188
BOOK REVIEWS:
The Other Half of the Curriculum, 45
Helping Parents—and Others—to Understand the Modern School, 45
A Federal Reading Project, 46
Directing Study Activities, 92
Supervision and Teaching in Kindergarten and Primary Grades, 141
Apparatus for Training Readers, 141
Special Training in Reading for High School Students, 141
More Advice on School Publicity, 142
A Curriculum Guide for Intermediate Grade Teachers, 205
Democracy, 205
Adventuring in Education, 206
The Junior High School, 253
Whither Curriculum? 253
Philosophy of Education, 254
The Meaning and Practice of Integration, 317
French Novelists and Adolescence, 318
The Principals' Yearbook, 318
How to Teach, 319
The Colleges are Invited to Study Education, 366
Teaching and Management, 367
Social Interpretation, 426
Problems of Today, 427
Social Living, 427
Comparative Education, 427
Books, The New, 47, 95, 142, 207, 256, 319, 367, 429
Brownell, William A., What Has Happened to Supervised Study? 373

Character Education in Old China, Eric G. Haden, 120
Child Guidance Bureau Personnel, The Functions of the, Joseph Miller, 118
Citizenship Training Practical, Let's Make, Albert G. Reilley, 99
Cohler, Milton J., A Reading Program for the First Two Years of Elementary School, 213
COOPERATION:
Dictatorship or Cooperation? R. Bruce Raup, 323
The Place of Cooperation in the Development of Instruction, Paul J. Misner, 329
Techniques of Cooperation Between Community Groups and the School, Alfred D. Sheffield, 335
Teachers in the Cooperative Development of Instructional Programs, Alice Miel, 342
Community Cooperation in the Development of Instructional Programs, Glenn Kendall, 348
Techniques of Cooperation, S. A. Courtis, 349
Cooperative Practices in the Development of Instructional Programs—Group Discussions, 351
Courtis, S. A., Techniques of Cooperation, 349

Danger Signals in the Club Program, Enid S. Smith, 80
Davis, L. C., Field Work in Geography, 293
Design for Schools, Eber Jeffery, 3
Detroit Meeting, 42
DIRECTION OF STUDY:
Directed Study as Guidance in Learning, Edwin H. Reeder, 371
What Has Happened to Supervised Study? William A. Brownell, 373
Learning to Study in the Early Grades, Dessalee Ryan Dudley, 378
The Direction of Study in Elementary Schools Using the Integrated Program, Lillian Gray, 382
Directing Children's Study of Geography, Edwin H. Reeder, 386
The Function of the Elementary School Library in Directing Study, Anna Reger, 391
The Child's Experience and His Art, Lucie Ann McCall, 395
Discussion Method in Teaching the Social Studies, The, C. A. Harper, 74
Dornblut, Julius Jr., Administering Elementary School Excursions, 70
Dudley, Dessalee Ryan, Learning to Study in the Elementary Grades, 378

EDITORIALS:
The Best Schools, James F. Hosic, 39
One Test, James F. Hosic, 86
A Modern Kindergarten, F. M. Underwood, 137
The Program for the Intermediate Grades, F. M. Underwood, 201
An Open Mind, F. M. Underwood, 249
These Things Are Out, F. M. Underwood, 315
Some Agencies in Geographic Education, George J. Miller, 315
The Convention Number, F. M. Underwood, 362
Needs of Society Versus Nature of the Child, F. M. Underwood, 362
Study, F. M. Underwood, 422
The Rôle of Emotion in Intelligence, F. M. Underwood, 422

Educative Methods Relative to Intelligence and Character Difficulties Encountered in Children, Frederick L. Patry, Part I, 236; Part II, 306
Eisen, Edna E., Aerial Views—Aids to Geography Study, 285
Elementary School Excursions, Administering, Julius Dornblut, Jr., 70
Everett, Marcia A., Cooperative Supervision in Warren County, New Jersey, 357

Fitzgerald, James A., A Diagnostic and Remedial Program in Reading, 221

GEOGRAPHY:
Geography: A Promoter of Better Living, Cora Sletten, 259
Some Trends in the New Geographic Education, Erna Grassmuck Gilland, 262
The Technique of Error Diagnosis in Geographic Education, Edith P. Parker, 269
Diagnosing Study Difficulties in Elementary Geography, F. E. Lord, 273
The Place of Geography in American Culture, Pearl H. Middlebrook, 277
Aerial Views—Aids to Geographic Study, Edna E. Eisen, 285
An Evaluation of Some Visual Aids to the Teaching of Geography, Henry F. Becker, 287
Maps: The Sign Language of Geography, Alison E. Aitchison and Marguerite Uttley, 289
Field Work in Geography, L. C. Davis, 293
A Supervisory Procedure in Geographic Education, Erna Grassmuck Gilland, 297
Aids from the Research Field, Norah E. Zink, 301
Geyer, Denton L., What Is Progressive Education? 8
Gilland, Erna Grassmuck, Some Trends in the New Geographic Education, 262; A Supervisory Procedure in Geographic Education, 297
Goforth, Lillian, A Classroom Experiment in Teaching Reading and Arithmetic Through Games, 231
Government, Let's Interview the, Herbert J. Abraham, 16
Gray, Howard A., Surmounting Barriers to Human Learning, 60
Gray, Lillian, The Direction of Study in Elementary Schools Using the Integrated Program, 382
Gregory, W. M., Radio Guidance for Geography Instruction in the Cleveland Elementary Schools, 65
Gunderson, Agnes G., Types of Reading Matter Contained in Readers Published Over a Period of Twenty Years, 226

Haden, Eric G., Character Education in Old China, 120
Haines, Josephine R., Social Finesse for Six-Year-Olds, 135
Harper C. A., The Discussion Method in Teaching the Social Studies, 74
Heffernan, Helen, and Gladys L. Potter, Adapting Curriculum to the Small Rural School, 51
Herrington, Dorah M., The Textbook, A Great American Achievement—To Be Memorized, To Be Discarded, or To Be Consulted? 78
Historical Plays as a Method of Teaching College History, Original, G. H. Winslow, 28
Hollister, George E., Permanency of Interest in a Learning Unit, 37
Hosic, James F. [Editorials]: The Best Schools, 39; One Test, 86
How the Frontier Moved Westward—An Eighth Grade History Project, Bertha Phelps, 246
Hullfish, H. Gordon, Cooperative Faculty Organization in Educational Planning, 352

Ingram, Christine P., Opportunity for the Slow-Learning Child, 409
Intermediate Grades—see Pre-Adolescents

Jeffery, Eber, Design for Schools, 3
Jourdonais, Ruth, Children Learn Through Managing Their Own Affairs, 170

Kendall, Glenn, Community Cooperation in the Development of Instructional Programs, 348
Kilpatrick, William H., Education as Living for Better Living, 149
Kirkendall, Lester A., Theory Versus Practice, 417

Lang, Charlotte C., The San Diego Exposition, 198
Learning Unit, Permanency of Interest in a, George E. Hollister, 37
Lesson Types, C. Dan Procter, 20
Lewis, Verna M., Taylor Nature Museum, 84
Lord, F. E., Diagnosing Study Difficulties in Elementary Geography, 273
Lull, Herbert G., Cooperative Faculty Organization in Educational Planning, 352

McCall, Lucie Ann, The Child's Experience and His Art, 395
McDougald, Juanita, Open House Day Observed in School Centers, 12
Mearns, Hughes, Some Notes on the Individual Contribution, 166
Melchior, Juanita McDougald, Utilizing School and Community Resources for Teacher Development in Æsthetic Appreciation and Creativeness, 404
Middlebrook, Pearl H., The Place of Geography in American Culture, 277
Miel, Alice, Teachers in the Cooperative Development of Instructional Programs, 342; Cooperative Faculty Organization, 353
Miller, George J., Some Agencies in Geographic Education, 315
Miller, Joseph, The Functions of the Child Guidance Bureau Personnel, 118
Misner, Paul J., The Place of Cooperation in the Development of Instruction, 329
Monroe, Blythe F., see Bartlett, Beulah D.
Moral Education with Simple Musical Instruments, Frank M. Rich, 107
Morrison, Nellie C., The Teaching of Cooperation to Children, 359
Mossman, Lois C., Some Aspects of Living and Learning Among Pre-Adolescents—Introduction, 147

Nationality Course in Social Science Based on Local Needs, A, Inez B. Petersen, 192

O'Brien, Frank J., Cooperative Programs in Child Guidance, 351
Open House Day Observed in School Centers, Juanita McDougald, 12

Opportunity for the Slow-Learning Child, Christine P. Ingram, 409

Paper Covers, In, 48, 96, 144, 207, 256, 320, 368, 429
Parker, Edith P., The Technique of Error Diagnosis in Geographic Instruction, 269
Patry, Frederick L., Educative Methods Relative to Intelligence and Character Difficulties Encountered in Children, Part I, 236; Part II, 306
Petersen, Inez B., A Nationality Course in Social Science Based on Local Needs, 192
Phelps, Bertha, How the Frontier Moved Westward—An Eighth Grade History Project, 246
Pierce, Paul R., Community Cooperation in the Development of Socially Useful Activities Among Students, 354
Pitts, Clara L., Values of Standard Achievement Tests, 128
Potter, Gladys L., see Heffernan, Helen
PRE-ADOLESCENTS:
Some Aspects of Living and Learning Among Pre-Adolescents—Introduction, Lois C. Mossman, 147
Education as Living for Better Living, William H. Kilpatrick, 149
Growth Needs of Children in the Intermediate Grades, Herbert R. Stolz, 157
Understanding the Child During the Latency Period, Caroline B. Zachry, 162
Some Notes on the Individual Contribution, Hughes Mearns, 166
Some Experiences with Children and Their Books, Edna Reed, 170
Children Learn Through Managing Their Own Affairs, Ruth Jourdonais, 176
Live and Learn at Potrero Heights, Beulah D. Bartlett and Blythe F. Monroe, 181
The News at Eleven—A Report After Three Weeks of School, Naoma Wetzel, 185
Meeting the Science Needs of Children in the Intermediate Grades, Catharine Bergen, 188
Procter, C. Dan, Lesson Types, 20
Progressive Education, What Is, Denton L. Geyer, 8

Radio Guidance for Geography Instruction in the Cleveland Elementary Schools, W. M. Gregory, 65
Raup, R. Bruce, Dictatorship or Cooperation? 323
Reading, A Diagnostic and Remedial Program in, James A. Fitzgerald, 221
Reading and Arithmetic Through Games, A Classroom Experiment in Teaching, Lillian Goforth, 231
Reading Matter Contained in Readers Published Over a Period of Twenty Years, Types of, Agnes G. Gunderson, 226
Reading Program for the First Two Years of Elementary School, A, Milton J. Cohler, 213
Reed, Edna, Some Experiences with Children and Their Books, 170
Reeder, Edwin H., Directed Study as Guidance in Learning, 371; Directing Children's Study of Geography, 386
Reger, Anna, The Function of the Elementary School Library in Directing Study, 391
Reilley, Albert G., Let's Make Citizenship Training Practical, 99
Rich, Frank M., Moral Education with Simple Musical Instruments, 107
Rural School, Adapting Curriculum to the Small, Helen Heffernan and Gladys L. Potter, 51

Salaries of Directors and Supervisors in 1936-37, Research Division, N. E. A., 39
San Diego Exposition, The, Charlotte C. Lang, 198
Sheffield, Alfred D., Techniques of Cooperation Between Community Groups and the School, 335
Sletten, Cora, Geography: A Promoter of Better Living, 259
Smith, Enid S., Danger Signals in the Club Program, 80
Social Finesse for Six-Year-Olds, Josephine R. Haines, 135
Social Studies, The Discussion Method in Teaching the, C. A. Harper, 74
Stolz, Herbert R., Growth Needs of Children in the Intermediate Grades, 157
Surmounting Barriers to Human Learning, Howard A. Gray, 60

Taylor Nature Museum, Verna M. Lewis, 84
Teacher Development in Æsthetic Appreciation and Creativeness, Utilizing School and Community Resources for, Juanita McDougald Melchior, 404
Tests, Values of Standard Achievement, Clara L. Pitts, 128
Tharp, James B., Modern Foreign Languages and the Social Studies, 360
The Textbook, A Great American Achievement—To Be Memorized, To Be Discarded, or To Be Consulted? Dorah M. Herrington, 78
Theory Versus Practice, Lester A. Kirkendall, 417
Thompson, Blanche Jennings, Vocabularia, 34
Thorpe, Louis P., The Modern View of Trait Development, 114
Townsend, W. B., What Do You Mean—Learning to Read? 211
Trait Development, The Modern View of, Louis P. Thorpe, 114

Underwood, F. M., 137, 201, 249, 315, 362, 422
Uttley, Marguerite, see Aitchison, Alison E.

Vocabularia, Blanche Jennings Thompson, 34

Wetzel, Naoma, The News at Eleven—A Report After Three Weeks of School, 185
What Do You Mean—Learning to Read? W. B. Townsend, 211
Winslow, G. H., Original Historical Plays as a Method of Teaching College History, 28

Zachry, Caroline B., Understanding the Child During the Latency Period, 162
Zeller, Dale, Cooperative Curriculum Development, 357
Zink, Norah E., Aids from the Research Field, 301